

North Carolina Correctional Association
Annual Training Conference

Rediscover the greatness and joy of your correctional journey at this year's annual training conference. The North Carolina Correctional Association's 31st Annual Training Conference theme "Making Connections in 2010" reminds us that we are all connected. Clearly stated this means your action impacts someone else.

Our host, The North Eastern Region and Executive Board of the North Carolina Correctional Association has selected the Doubletree Hotel and Convention Center Rocky Mount, North Carolina as the host city for our 31st Annual Training Conference. The city of Rocky Mount offers a number of recreational facilities for its residents and visitors. You can visit Meadowbrook Park, Buck Leonard Park, and Sunset Park. The city also has several shopping centers such as the Raleigh Road Shopping Center, Tarrytown Mall, Edgecombe Park Shopping Center, Englewood Square Shopping Center, Oakwood Shopping Center, and Golden East Crossing Shopping Center. .

This training conference will stimulate you to think and connect on many levels and focus on training opportunities that will enhance your opportunity for career growth, professionalism, and provide an opportunity for attendees to view the most innovative products in corrections.

*Our host hotel , the Doubletree Hotel Rocky Mount offers value and comfort in a great location.
